ORDINANCE

OF THE

LORDS and COMMONS

ASSEMBLED IN PARLIAMENT.

Die Luna. 2. Febr. 1645.

UPon the humble motion and desire of the Common-Councell of the City of London, the Lords and Commons in Parliament Assembled doe Ordain, and Declare, and bee it Ordained, That the siguord A 2 sum sum of thirty two Thousand pounds shall forthwith be advanced by way of Loane by such Persons of ability, as doe inhabit or have any Stock or Trade going within the City of London, and Liberties thereof, as shall lend the same on the security and terme hereafter expressed. And for the more speedy and orderly raising of the said summe; be it also Ordained, That the Committee of Arreares, appointed by the Common Councell of the City of London, or any seven of them, shall be a Committee, and shall have power and are hereby authorized to raise and leave the said summe, and every part thereof, in such manner and form as is expressed in an Ordinance dated the first of July, 1645. Entituled An Ordinance of the Lords and Commons in Parliament Assembled, For the raising of 20000 l. to be employed towards the reducing of Oxford to the obedience of the Parliament: The said Money to be paid to such Treasurers as shall be appointed by the said Committee; which Money so brought brought in to the Treasurers as aforesaid, shall be issued out according to order and direction of the Court of Common-Councell, deducting three Pence per pound for payment of Officers, and other Charges, as the said Committee, or any seven of them shall direct and appoint. And for the better encouragement and securing of such Persons as shall advance the said sum, or any part thereof: The said Lords and Commons doe hereby Ordain, That such Person or Persons as shall lend or pay any Money upon, or by vertue of this Ordinance, and pay the same to such Treasurers as aforesaid, shall be repayed the severall summes which shall bee by them advanced, out of the Receipts of the Excise and New-Impost, with Interest after the rate of 8 l. per centum, per annum, for so long time as they shall forbear the same. And the Commissioners of Excise & New-Impost for the time being, are hereby authorized & required to pay unto the severall Lenders, their Executors and Assignes, at the end of every six moneths the Interest for so much money as shall be advanced by vertue hereof, and the Principall and remainder of the Interest thereof after the rate aforesaid in due course, order, and ranck, as the same stands charged upon the Excise and Impost, after other summes already Ordered to be charged upon the said Receipts, for the use of the Army are first satisfied. And the Receipt or Receipts of the severall and respective Lenders, together with a Certificate, or Certificates under the Hands of the Treasurers aforesaid, or any two of them; testifying the severall and respective summes advanced and received as aforesaid by vertue of this present Ordinance, shall be a sufficient discharge unto the Commissioners of Excise and every of them, for payment of the said Interest and Principall; and Interest in manner and form aforesaid.

Provided this Ordinance, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to any Peer of this Realm, or Assistant of the House

House of Peers, or unto any Member of the House of Commons, or unto any Attendant of either of the Houses of Parliament. And the Lords and Commons doe also Ordain, That all Persons acting according to the true meaning of this Ordinance, shall be saved harmlesse by Authority of Parliament.
